Repatriation of Bangladesh tribal refugees

1195. SHRI KRISHNA KUMAR BIRLA: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether the Central Government has convened a high level meeting in October to resolve the current impasse over the repatriation of Bangladeshi tribal refugees;

(b) if so, the outcome of the meeting;

(c) whether Government have finally chalked out any plan for their repatriation; and

(d) if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI P. M. SAYEED): (a) to (d) Yes, Sir. A meeting was held on 25 October, 1994 by the Minister of State (States) in this Ministry. It was noted that after the repatriation of 5199 Chakma refugees from Tripura in 2 phases in February and July-August, 1994, the refugee leaders have declined to resume the repatriation process alleging that assurances given by the Government of Bangladesh have not been fully implemented and the conditions in the Chittagong Hill Tracts area are not conducive for their return. The Chakma refugees being Bangladesh nationals, it is for the Government of Bangladesh to find a satisfactory solution to the problem. The Government of India has been making all efforts to facilitate the process of repatriation of the Chakma refugees.
